INTRODUCTION

In the nature of our people, history was composed of reverence, reverence for the heritage of our ancestors, the feature of honoring their rich spiritual property, with its own traditions. In honor of the spirit of our great ancestors, the source of pride of dozens of allomas of our motherland, huge monuments, memorial coffins, statues were erected, special conventions were held, and dedicatory books were published. This expanded the ability of the population to form the true patriotic qualities of young people in particular. At the height of today's globalization processes, special attention is paid by our state to the issues of developing the education of young people, the future of our country, growing their worldview, forming a generation that serves the development of our motherland. The reason is, a generation with nationalistic, patriotic, universal spiritual qualities is considered a kejug of any society or state.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

President Of The Republic Of Uzbekistan Sh.In the PQ-3160 decision adopted by Mirziyoyev on July 28, 2017 “on improving the effectiveness of spiritual and educational work and raising the development of the sphere to a new level”, today the processes of globalization in the world are gaining momentum, new threats and risks against peace and stability are increasing.

As in all types of socio-political activity, there is a certain system, form and working methods in the work of military-patriotic education of young people. This system has a complex nature of training young people for military service and includes all educational institutions, state organizations, as well as non-governmental organizations responsible for youth education, which carry out activities related to the implementation of the training of mature military personnel in every possible way to our national army.

In particular, the directions of the youth military-patriotic education system consist of the directions of family education and education, preschool education system, general secondary education system, secondary special, vocational education system, higher education system, military education system, military service system, pedagogy, psychology, methods of education and upbringing, educational and educational process, military-patriotic education process.

Patriotic education is a continuous process, which at all times of a person's life is formed, developed, manifested in its own way and becomes of serious importance in the life of each individual. Military-patriotic education, which is its high level without a continuous connection with patriotic education, is a necessary direction for preparing young people for military service. Accordingly, military-patriotic education is also a continuous process.

At the same time, the system of military-patriotic education is associated with and based on all types of upbringing and relies on the unity of the people with the army.

The young generation, now growing into the structure of the existing system of military-patriotic education, can get acquainted with the military sphere in the family, school, circles, the work of the Army Service, participate in training activities for conscripted Youth, Study at educational institutions in the system of the organization "Patriot", engage in technical and practical sports, engage in military sports competitions, "Eagles", The public council under the Ministry of Defense of the Republic of Uzbekistan and others are included. In the activities of this system, activities in the direction of the military patriotic education system take an important place in providing education and education to the young generation growing in our country, forming a harmonious person in every way, High love for the motherland in the hearts of our youth, pride in our Armed Forces and deep respect for military service.

Current urgent tasks for the further strengthening of work on the organization and conduct of events in the military-patriotic direction include:

taking into account the fact that in today's time the world is changing fiercely, attempts to instill alien and destructive ideas in the life of our society in different ways, which are completely contrary to the spiritual values, culture and traditions of our people, are clearly going to struggle sharply to take over the soul and consciousness of the younger generation;

in such conditions, it is necessary to raise our children of military personnel and pre-military age and increase the quality and efficiency of work on improving their spiritual and spiritual training, to take measures to ensure that these works are deeply and richly meaningful, impressive;

further strengthening work on the organization and conduct of military-patriotic activities aimed at improving the feelings of high Love for the motherland, pride in our Armed Forces and deep respect for military service in the hearts of our youth in educational institutions, military and labor communities, neighborhoods;

to work in cooperation with the public council under the Ministry of Defense, the Youth Union of Uzbekistan and other public organizations and prominent figures of structures, culture, arts and sports in the implementation of long-term, urgent tasks for organizing and conducting events in the military-patriotic direction;

extensive use of the capabilities of the media, literature, arts, achievements of Science and the national network of the Internet; promotion of ideas for the protection of the motherland among young people and citizens, promotion of militarization in all organizations and educational institutions involved in the military-patriotic education of young people, ensuring a higher level of spiritual and educational and organizational mass work.

Taking into account these, it is necessary to regularly carry out activities in the system of military-patriotic education in the following areas:

1. To carry out large-scale propaganda work with the Departments of the Ministry of Defense on the premises, organize and conduct military-patriotic activities with conscript students during the training process in order to qualitatively sort the youth up to the call to training institutions for military-technical specialists for the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

2. To carry out large-scale patriotic events with young people up to the call, studying in secondary specialized vocational education institutions, to increase the importance and effectiveness of these events, according to the plans signed in cooperation with established organizations.

3. To carry out trips of students to military units in cooperation with garrisons in order to closely familiarize students of secondary special, vocational educational institutions and upper-class students of secondary schools with the life of the military, the conditions created for military personnel and the service process.

4. The plans signed in cooperation with the established organizations are organized and held sports events, spiritual educational events, meetings and round tables aimed at educating students of secondary special, vocational educational institutions and upper-class students of general education schools in the spirit of military patriotism.

5. In order to attract the young generation, which is gaining maturity, to the technical and practical types of sports, to form an interest in the military profession in their minds and to promote the sacred duty of protection of the motherland, to carry out visits of student youth to educational institutions that train military specialists in the Armed Forces.

6. Holding an "open day" with the participation of parents of students studying in military educational institutions, local government bodies, representatives of the public and up to the call youth in order to acquaint them with the conditions created for students.

7. Organization of spiritual and educational activities with students studying in military educational institutions, awarding students who have excelled among their comrades in their exemplary behavior during their studies and won and won sports competitions.

8. The organization of the work of activating the torch of sports games" sprouts of hope"," harmonious generation"," Universiade " is the wide involvement of young people in sports, the implementation of activities that direct them to patriotic and military-patriotic education. (The process of activating the torch in the solar device at these events, carrying it from each region, district, city, and the corresponding events: welcoming, rally,concerts, Bashkir events are immeasurable in the spiritual and educational and patriotic education of sport. Precisely following the approved plan in these processes, as a result of its full and high-quality implementation and the instructive level of security activities, their socio-educational impact and importance are further increased, creating feelings of pride in young people, which serve to increase their interest in playing sports.)

9. The implementation of trips of students of educational institutions to the Fatherland military units, meetings with officers and sergeants of the personal composition of our national army, winners of competitions held in the Armed Forces system in the organization, the organization of round tables, etc. Today, the upbringing of the younger generation in the spirit of military-patriotism, respect for our national traditions and values, the education of ambitious young people in the ranks of our national army who are in every possible way competent, independent-minded, able to take responsibility for the prospects of our country, the fate of our country, the peace and protection of the
